

To Whom it May Concern,

Evan Matoske performed a required internship as part of his Professional Golf Management program under my supervision from May through November 2012. During that time I developed a very high regard for Evan based on the contributions that he made to our facility throughout his tenure.

Evan's upbeat demeanor and can do attitude brightened the department and made him a very low maintenance and reliable employee. His strong human relations skills enabled him to interface very effectively with many different constituencies including customers, visiting PGA professionals and staff employees. Evan's strong communications skills allowed him to relay information in a clear and concise manner. Evan is a naturally caring person with a strong helping orientation who consistently demonstrated a solid service orientation towards our clients.

As you can tell by now, I am quite impressed with this outstanding young man and give him my strongest recommendation for roles which require intelligence, organization, communication skills, service and a positive attitude. Please feel free to contact me if you need additional information or perspective.

Sincerely,

Mark Bergmann
